Recommended Emergency Action Steps

For Individuals and Families

LEVEL

RECOMMENDED EMERGENCY ACTION STEPS

SEVERE

- Definition: a terrorist attack has occurred or credible or corroborated intelligence indicates that one is imminent. Normally, this threat condition is declared for a specific location or critical facility.
- · Expect delays, searches of bags and traffic. Expect restrictions and restricted access to public buildings.
- · Monitor the news and the Emergency Alert System radio/TV stations. Avoid passing unsubstantiated information and rumors
- · Contact business to determine status of work day.
- · Avoid crowded public areas and gathering. Do not travel in areas affected by the attack or is an expected terrorist target.
- · Keep emergency supplies accessible. Be prepared to evacuate your home or shelter in place on order of local authorities.

HIGH

- Definition: Credible intelligence indicates that there is a high risk of a local terrorist attack but a specific target has not been identified
- Continue normal activities but expect delays, baggage searches and restrictions as a result of heightened security at public facilities.
- Avoid leaving luggage unattended; avoid and report unattended luggage.
- · Exercise caution when traveling.
- · Continue to monitor and local events, as well as local government threat advisories.
- · Avoid leaving unattended packages or brief cases in public areas.
- · Inventory emergency supply kits and discuss emergency plans with family. Reevaluate meeting location based on threat.
- · Maintain close contact with your family and neighbors to ensure their safety and emotional welfare.
- Report suspicious persons taking photographs of critical facilities, asking detailed questions about physical security or dressed inappropriately for weather conditions (such as a suicide bomber). Report these activities immediately to local law enforcement by calling 91-1.

ELEVATED

Definition: Elevated risk of terrorist attack but a specific region of the United States or target has not been identified.

- Continue normal activities, but report suspicious activities to the local law enforcement agencies.
- Take a first aid or Community Emergency Response Team class.
- Network with your family, neighbors and community for mutual support during a terrorist attack.
- · Check telephone numbers and e-mail addresses in your personal communication plan and update as necessary.

GUARDED

Definition: General risk with no credible threats to specific targets.

- Continue normal activities but be watchful for suspicious activities. Report criminal activity to local law enforcement.
- · Increase family emergency preparedness by purchasing supplies, food and storing water, review family emergency plans.
- Develop emergency communication plan with family, friends, and neighbors.
- · Monitor local and national news for terrorist alerts.
- Update immunizations.

LOW

Definition: Low risk of terrorism. Routine security is implemented to preclude routine criminal threats.
